

“How Prisoners Go Free”

Romans 3:9-26

Freedom is a huge word for the Christian believer. Picture yourself nervously standing in a courtroom before a judge who has just read the pile of evidence against you. Just before the gavel strikes the bench proclaiming your guilt, a piece of evidence strikes his gaze and he unexpectedly announces your innocence. You can now go free! Here Paul explains how any person anywhere can find hope and freedom because of the gospel.

I. Our Guilt Is Universal (vv. 9-20)

A. Condemnation of Sin (v. 9)

B. Confirmation by Scripture (vv. 10-18)

C. Clarification of a System (vv. 19-20)

II. God's Gift Is Available (vv. 21-24)

A. It's Completely Scriptural (v. 21)

B. It's Completely Suitable (vv. 22-24)

III. This Grace Is Remarkable (vv. 24-26)

A. God Acted Graciously (vv. 24-25)

B. God Acted Judiciously (v. 26)
