“Love Is a Verb”

Romans 12:9-21

Perhaps the most overused (but under-practiced) word in human language is the word love. We use the word for everything that includes a mild liking of a meal to having intense affection for another human. Paul is far more practical, knowing that love will show itself in the form of action. Love is a verb. He shows us how the hallmark virtue of Christianity, love, is shown among other believers and in the world, even when they hate us.

I. Love in the Family (vv. 9-13)

II. Love amidst Hostility (vv. 14-21)

III. Love among Our Enemies (vv. 17-20)
