“The Cure for ‘I’ Disease”

Romans 15:1-6

Selfishness is part of our basic human nature. It is the default position for every human being. Left unchecked, everybody would focus on himself and live only to please himself. But redemption brings with it a different lifestyle—one that is focused on others, patient with faults, and motivated by a sense of unity in the church. Let’s consider a fourfold strategy to counteract selfishness and promote harmonious living.

I. Patient Activity (vv. 1-2)

II. Personal Conformity (v. 3)

III. Purposeful Study (v. 4)

IV. Practical Harmony (vv. 5-6)
