“How to Treat Your Family”

Romans 16:1-24

I am so honored and thankful to be part of this spiritual family. You are one of God’s greatest gifts in my life! In this last chapter of Romans, Paul’s tone and subject matter is familial—he approaches them not as Paul the theologian, but Paul their brother in Christ. It’s unfortunate that many believers don’t pay much attention to chapter 16 because in it we get a great example of how to treat our own spiritual family.

I. Be Welcoming (vv. 1-2)

II. Be Honoring (vv. 3-16, 21-24)

III. Be Discerning (vv. 17-20)
